Affectual Erasure Cynthia Margarita Tompkins, 2018-08-23 Comprehensive examination of how Indigenous peoples have been represented in Argentine film. Affectual Erasure examines how Argentine cinema has represented Indigenous peoples throughout a period spanning roughly a century. Cynthia Margarita Tompkins interrelates her discussion of films with the ethnographic context of the Indigenous peoples represented and an analysis of the affective dimensions at play. These emotions underscore the inherent violence of generic conventions, as well as the continued political violence preventing Indigenous peoples from access to their ancestral lands and cultural mores. Tompkins explores a broad range of movies beginning in the silent period and includes both feature films and documentaries, underscored by archival and contemporary film stills. She traces the initial erotic projection, moving through melodrama to the conventions of the Western, into the 1960s focus on decolonization, superseded by allegorical renditions and the promise of self-expression in late twentieth-century documentaries. Each section includes an introduction to the sociohistorical events of the period and their impact on film production. Analyzed chronologically, the films evidence different stages in the projection of the hegemonic Argentine imaginary, which fails to envision the daily life of Indigenous peoples prior to conquest or in colonial times—and remains in denial of their existence in the present. Cynthia Margarita Tompkins is Professor of Spanish at Arizona State University and the author of Experimental Latin American Cinema: History and Aesthetics.

The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L. Williams, 2007-09-21 In this expertly crafted, richly detailed guide, Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural, political, and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II. In addition to works originally composed in English, Williams covers novels written in Spanish, Portuguese, French, Dutch, and Haitian Creole, and traces the profound influence of modernization, revolution, and democratization on the writing of this era. Beginning in 1945, Williams introduces major trends by region, including the Caribbean and U.S. Latino novel, the Mexican and Central American novel, the Andean novel, the Southern Cone novel, and the novel of Brazil. He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s, led by Jorge Luis Borges's reaffirmation of the right of invention, and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil, the Generation of the Crack in Mexico, and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America. An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors, coverage of major topics, and brief introductions to individual novels. It also addresses such areas as women's writing, Afro-Latin American writing, and magic realism. The guide's final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel, national literary traditions, and the work of individual authors. From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban violence and globalization, The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 presents a comprehensive, accessible portrait of a thoroughly diverse and complex branch of world literature.

Carlos Monsiváis Linda Egan, 2001-09 One of Mexico's foremost social and political chroniclers and its most celebrated cultural critic, Carlos Monsiváis has read the pulse of his country over the past half century. The author of five collections of literary journalism pieces called crónicas, he is perhaps best known for his analytic and often satirical descriptions of Mexico City's popular culture. This comprehensive study of Monsiváis's crónicas is the first book to offer an analysis of these works and to place Monsiváis's work within a theoretical framework that recognizes the importance of his vision of Mexican culture. Linda Egan examines his ideology in relation to theoretical postures in Latin America, the United States, and Europe to cast Monsiváis as both a heterodox pioneer and a mainstream spokesman. She then explores the poetics of the contemporary chronicle in Mexico, reviewing the genre's history and its relation to other narrative forms. Finally, she focuses on the canonical status of Monsiváis's work, devoting a chapter to each of his five principal collections. Egan argues that the five books that are the focus of her study tell a story of ever-renewing suspense: we cannot know the end until Monsiváis is through constructing his literary project. Despite this, she observes, his work between 1970 and 1995 documents important discoveries in his search for causes, effects, and deconstructions of historical obstacles to Mexico's passage into modernity. While anthropologists and historians continue to introduce new paradigms for the study of Mexico's cultural space, Egan's book provides a reflexive twist by examining the work of one of the thinkers who first inspired such a critical movement. More than an appraisal of Monsiváis, it offers a valuable discussion of theoretical issues surrounding the study of the chronicle as it is currently practiced in Mexico. It balances theory and criticism to lend new insight into the ties between Mexican society, social conscience, and literature.

Gender and Culture at the Limit of Rights Dorothy L. Hodgson, 2011-05-17 An interdisciplinary collection, Gender and Culture at the Limit of Rights examines the potential and limitations of the women's rights as human rights framework as a strategy for seeking gender justice. Drawing on detailed case studies from the United States, Africa, Latin America, Asia, and elsewhere, contributors to the volume explore the specific social histories, political struggles, cultural assumptions, and gender ideologies that have produced certain rights or reframed long-standing debates in the language of rights. The essays address the gender-specific ways in which rights-based protocols have been analyzed, deployed, and legislated in the past and the present and the implications for women and men, adults and children in various social and geographical locations. Questions addressed include: What are the gendered assumptions and effects of the dominance of rights-based discourses for claims to social justice? What kinds of opportunities and limitations does such a culture of rights provide to seekers of justice, whether individuals or collectives, and how are these gendered? How and why do female bodies often become the site of contention in contexts pitting cultural against juridical perspectives? The contributors speak to central issues in current scholarly and policy debates about gender, culture, and human rights from comparative disciplinary, historical, and geographical perspectives. By taking gender, rather than just women, seriously as a category of analysis, the chapters suggest that the very sources of the power of human rights discourses, specifically women's rights as human rights discourses, to produce social change are also the sources of its limitations.

The Force of Witness Rosa-Linda Fregoso, 2023-02-27 In The Force of Witness Rosa-Linda Fregoso examines the contra femicide movement in Mexico and other feminist efforts to eradicate gender violence. Drawing on interviews, art, documentaries, and her years of activism, Fregoso traces the micro and macro scales of misogyny and the patterns of state complicity with gender violence. She shows how different forms of witnessing—from activist-mothers' bearing witness to the memories of their daughters and expert witnesses in court cases to communal witnessing and a scholar-activist-citizen witnessing her own actions—are key to resisting feminicidal violence. Fregoso situates these forms of witness in the histories, contexts, structures, bodies, and intersectional struggles they emerge from. By outlining the complexities of feminicidal violence in relation to witnessing processes, Fregoso challenges the notion of witness as an individual or autonomous subject inscribed solely in the legal or religious arenas. Rather, she theorizes witness as a force of collectivity and a constellation of multiple social locations and intersectional practices that work together to abolish feminicidal violence.

Antología de crónica latinoamericana actual Darío Jaramillo Agudelo, 2012-02-15 Esta antología, libro de cabecera para todo aquel que quiera entender el boom del periodismo narrativo, incluye textos de cronistas consagrados como Juan Villoro, Martín Caparrós, Alberto Salcedo Ramos o Leila Guerriero, entre otros. «La crónica periodística es la prosa narrativa de más apasionante lectura y mejor escrita hoy en día en Latinoamérica.» «Un lector que busque materiales que lo entretengan, lo asombren, le hablen de mundos extraños que están enfrente de sus narices, un lector que busque textos escritos por gente que le da importancia a que ese lector no se aburra, ese lector va sobre seguro si lee la crónica latinoamericana actual». «Entre los grandes capítulos de la crónica latinoamericana se encuentra la violencia (el cronista, a menudo altavoz de la víctima, se sitúa a veces fuera de la moral convencional para poder oír las razones del asesino o de quien usa a los niños como objeto sexual). Pero la crónica cuenta también con un territorio apacible, como lo muestran las que hablan de héroes literarios (Borges, Monsiváis, Pavese...), ídolos de masas (Gardel, los Rolling Stones o un futbolista estrella), historias de vidas anónimas o insólitas (como las inmersiones en la vida de alguien con el salario mínimo, o en el mundo del intercambio de parejas)...» Darío Jaramillo Agudelo Autores incluidos en la antología: Luis Fernando Afanador (Colombia) Cristian Alarcón (Chile) Alejandro Almazán (México) Toño Angulo Daneri (Perú) Marco Avilés (Perú) Frank Báez (República Dominicana) Jaime Bedoya (Perú) Sabina Berman (México) Martín Caparrós (Argentina) José Alejandro Castaño (Colombia) Laura Castellanos (México) Hernán Casciari (Argentina) Sergio Dahbar (Argentina) Heriberto Fiorillo (Colombia) Juan Forn (Argentina) Leila Guerriero (Argentina) Leonardo Haberkorn (Uruguay) Juan José Hoyos (Colombia) Mario Jursich (Colombia) Laura Kopouchian (Argentina) Pedro Lemebel (Chile) Josefina Licitra (Argentina) Liza López (Venezuela) Carlos
